Hello!

First, congratulations on your engagement! Planning a wedding takes a lot of time and patience, but in the end all of the hard work pays off when you look back and remember the day that you will cherish forever. With that, I am thrilled that you are considering McKenna Christine Photography to accompany you during your wedding day!

My work is inspired by YOU.

Each couple is unique and I want the memories I capture to be filled with your personalities and beautiful love the two of you have for each other. I would be honored to have you share such a special day with me. As your photographer, I am strongly committed to documenting the raw, joy-filled moments and producing them into art that will help you and your family remember this incredible milestone.

Frequently Asked Qeustions

What is the difference between a mini engagement session and a full engagement session?
A mini engagement session is a 30 minute session that includes one outfit and one location. A full engagement session is 1.5 hours and up to three outfits and three locations.

Are there travel fees?
All wedding packages include travel fees, because I believe that traveling and photographing in new places is very exciting!

Why do I need a second shooter?
There will be plenty of times where many special moments will be happening during the wedding day, and one photographer just isn't enough. A second photographer is a super talented individual that I hire and will be covering the whole day as well.

How many images will we receive?
The number of images received really depends on the wedding - how many guests, hours of coverage, etc. You should get around 800 images, though that number could be more.

Can you hold a wedding date?
To be fair, dates cannot be held until the deposit is received along with the signed contract. Once that is all said and done, the date is yours!

Do you refund cancellations?
The deposit is non-refundable because I turn down all other commissions for that specific date.

I can't decide on a package. What do you recommend?
The 8 hour package! 8 hours covers your entire day.

Printing Rights

Once you receive your personalized online gallery, you can download all full-resolution images to any of your devices. This makes it easy to share your unforgettable memories to friends and family straight from your fingertips! With printing rights, you can choose to print any product you choose at the most convenient time for you.

What's next?

If this all sounds good to you, let's book your day! Just send me an email with any other questions you may have, I would love to answer them!

A required $500 downpayment and a signed contract will book your day. The balance remaining is due 3 weeks before the wedding.

We will also schedule an engagment session date!

I can't wait to hear from you.

Thank you!
